Aligning Employer & Employee Needs

Harrison maps employee talents to specific job requirements making it easy to ensure employees are in roles that leverage their talents. Organizational business objectives are aligned with individual employee goals, passions, and expectations. By demonstrating the company's interest in employee needs, you increase performance while at the same time engaging and retaining top talent.

Managers gain tools to monitor each employee's engagement and talent development, as well as coach each employee based on their individual needs and goals. Armed with an understanding of employee's needs, wants, motivators and attitudes, managers can easily address behavioral gaps through conversations that address mutual needs. Managers are empowered with the tools to create effective employee development plans that target the employee's greatest potential and motivation to grow.

SmartQuestionnaire

Harrison's proprietary SmartQuestionnaire measures a full spectrum of 175 workplace relevant factors in only 25 minutes. Enjoyment Performance methodology builds talent relationships by giving importance to what individual employees want and need, while at the same time identifying a comprehensive set of job specific performance factors. This results in accelerated development and increased return on investment.

Paradox Technology

Paradox Technology accurately determines whether a person's behavioral tendencies are strengths or derailers in a given role - something most traditional assessments fail to do. It provides employers with a way to emphasize what individuals are doing right, while at the same time providing a framework for understanding behavioral patterns and the balancing factors that can enhance performance and job satisfaction.

Powerful Self-Knowledge

This powerful self-knowledge improves relationships and performance. Effective talent development facilitates strong relationships among employees, managers, coaches and teams. Harrison provides employers the comprehensive intelligence and data necessary to build these relationships, resulting in accelerated employee development, and increased employee engagement and retention.
